

Speaker Profile

Kaushik Ghosh

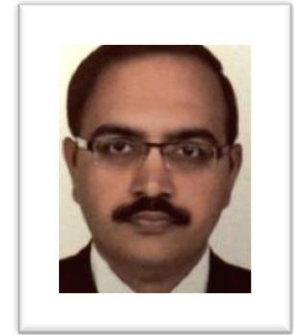

Kaushik Ghosh is a member of the Group Executive and Chief Technology Officer for the Secure Meters Group. He has been deeply involved with technology development and formulation of product – market strategies for the developed as well as the developing world. Kaushik takes keen interest in Smart Metering, Smart Grid, Prepay & Credit management, Revenue Completeness, Energy Conservation, Network energy accounting, Smart Homes, Customer engagement issues and has been actively involved with the evolution of Smart Metering in the UK, Australia, India and South East Asia.

Kaushik is based in Winchester, UK. He has over 30 years of experience in the field of instrumentation and electronics and has been involved with the metering industry for more than 20 years and has several patents to his name. Kaushik is BE (Gold Medalist) from Jadavpur University; M Tech from the Indian Institute of Technology, Chennai and MBA from IGNOU, New Delhi. He is a member of the Institute of Directors, UK.

Speaker Profile

Devendra Vyas

Devendra is working at Secure Meters Limited as a Program Manager, leading team of 30+ (Team based at 4 locations & 3 countries) for development of High-end Metering Products. He has worked in various diversified areas throughout his career like Project management, Embedded Software development, Design & development of Energy Meters (Domestic, Industrial, Smart Meters, Pre-payment Meters & Grid Meters), Simulation & Modeling of Current & Voltage Transducers, Development & maintenance of Calibration & testing laboratory. He has been participating for power quality initiative in India and published article on power quality in leading magazine of India. Currently, he is leading the development of Power quality monitoring & analysis solution, which would help addressing power quality problems of Electricity utility companies & Industries.

Devendra is based at Udaipur (INDIA) and having 20 Years of experience of Research & Development in Energy Metering domain. Devendra has done Graduation in Electronics & Telecommunication Engg. from IET, Kolkata and MBA from IGNOU, New Delhi.